TO TEACH ECONOMY IN TIME.
Commencing today an interesting exhibit of labor saving devices will be held in the treasury building, Washington, under the auspices of the secretary of the treasury.

The exhibition, which will continue all week is for the benefit of the heads of federal departments and is designed to emphasize the value to them of labor curtailing inventions.

Government officials from all the nearby states, as well as those permanently located in Washington will attend the exhibit, which is to be the most elaborate of its kind ever held under federal direction.

Primarily the purpose of the exhibition is to encourage economy in the government service.

Machines that do all sorts of stunts in arithmetic and threaten to dethrone the expert accountant from his citadel of diagraphs, which enable the faintest whisper to be distinctly heard in every part of the big building and by means of which Secretary Mac Veach for the last six months has been in the habit of transmitting orders for his subordinates in the various departments under his control, to machines for counting bulion, and preventing the big treasure shop from losing any of its herds of gold and silver curls; typewriting devices that do all but think and a hundred other novel mechanical appliances that simplify the work of a big establishment and insure a more efficient and expeditious administration of the duties of employees, big and little, will be in daily evidence for the information and instruction of visitors.

The exhibition has been arranged by Secretary Mac Veach to show what these innovations are doing for his department in every day operation, in order that those who are anxious to dispose of the business of their bureau with more dispatch than old methods permit, may profit from his experience.

A WIFE'S TERRIBLE DEED.

Mrs. Idora Webb, a pretty woman, of Richmond, shot her husband, Alfred S. Webb, as he was dressing for Sunday school, and then turned the weapon on herself, inflicting a wound which later proved fatal. The husband is in a dangerous condition. Mrs. Webb was mentally deranged.

For some time Mrs. Webb had been despondent and had threatened to kill herself. Her mind gave way completely yesterday morning. She slipped into the room as her husband stood before a small mirror trying his necktie.

There was a flash, and realizing that he had been shot, Webb rushed to the tree, where he fell unconscious. As people on the street ran to his aid, a second shot was heard. Prostrated on the floor of the room Mrs. Webb lay in a state of unconsciousness with a bullet in her stomach. She was taken to a hospital, where she died.

The condition of Webb is critical. The couple have been married for more than ten years and have two children, a boy of 9 and a girl of 5 years. The children were in the house getting ready for Sunday school when the tragedy took place.

W. E. Starr, the father of Mrs. Webb, on hearing that his daughter was dying from loss of blood, allowed the hospital physician to transfuse a large quantity of his blood into the veins of the woman in an effort to save her.

Your tongue is sore, Your breath is foul, Headaches come and go. These symptoms show that your stomach is the trouble. To remove the cause is the first thing, and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will do that. Easy to take and most effective. Sold by W. F. Orlington & Co., and Richard Gibson.

Make a note now to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head. It is a purifying and soothing to the sensitive membrane that lines the air passageways. It is made to overcome the disease, not to fool the patient by a short, deceptive relief. There is no cocaine nor mercury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All druggists sell it. Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.
